

Army Aviation Broken Wing Award presented to

who

while performing flight duty on displayed extraordinary skill, judgement, and technique during an in-flight emergency. In spite of extreme circumstances which might have led to catastrophic results, a successful landing was achieved through application of the highest degree of proficiency and discretion.

Brigadier General
Director of Army Safety